Disputes having frequently arisen between the Rector of Rok & the Churchwardens of Barking in Essex relative to Mrs Nutbrown's Charity – the latter insisting that the whole sum of £6 13s 4d should be paid by the Rector of Rok without any deduction whatever – the others alledging that the Landtax ought to be allowed for, & that it had invariably been deducted [redacted] It was finally agreed in the year 1783 between the then Rector of Rok & Mr Eastleigh the Churchwarden of Barking in behalf of that Parish (Counsel's opinion having been first had) that the Charity shall contribute to the Landtax in proportion to the Landtax of the whole Rectory & that in future the sum of 16 Shillings shall be deducted from the Charity money & no more.
