INSTRUCTIONS

RELATING TO THE

CORRECTION OF ERRORS IN MARRIAGE REGISTERS.

(See also Section II. and the Appendix to the Book of "Suggestions for the Guidance of the Clergy with reference to the Marriage and Registration Acts.")

An Error in a completed Entry of Marriage may, under the provisions of Section 44 of 6 and 7 Will. IV., cap. 86, be corrected by the Clergyman who registered the Marriage, or by the Rector, Vicar, or Curate for the time being.

It is recommended that the Clergy should, in every case, require satisfactory documentary or other proof of an alleged Error before they commence any Correction under the provisions of the Section above referred to.

The Original Entry must not be altered in any way, but the Correction must be made by means of a Marginal Note in which the nature of the Error or Errors and the truth of the matter must be specified; and this must be done by the Clergyman, in the presence of the Parties Married (if possible); but should they have left the neighbourhood or have died, the Correction may then be made by the Clergyman in the presence of the Superintendent Registrar of the District in which the Church wherein the Marriage took place is situated and of two credible Witnesses, one or both of whom should, if possible, have witnessed the Marriage and be personally cognizant of the facts involved in the Correction. Should either of the Parties or Witnesses to the Marriage attend to witness the correction, steps should be taken to establish their identity by a comparison of their signatures with those in the original Entry.

If the Correction be of some erroneous particular contained in the Entry, a line in Ink should be drawn thereunder; but if the Correction be intended to supply an omission in the Entry, the nature of such omission will be sufficiently indicated in the Marginal Note.

The Marginal Note must be dated, and must be signed by the Clergyman, and by the Persons (as above described) in whose presence it is made.

The Correction must in every respect be similarly carried out in both Duplicate Registers if both are wrong; and should one of them have been deposited with the Superintendent Registrar, arrangements should be made with him for the Correction to be simultaneously carried out by the Clergyman in both Books. Any Certificate issued must of course include the Correction and the Marginal Note.

If the Quarterly Certified Copies including the Corrected Entry have not been made and delivered to the Superintendent Registrar, the Marginal Note must of course appear in the margin of the Copy. If, however, the Certified Copies have been so delivered then the Clergyman must immediately after the Correction make out on the form enclosed herewith, or on a separate entire sheet of the printed Forms for Certified Copies, a fresh Copy of the Corrected Entry with its Marginal Note, which he must certify and then transmit by post to the Registrar General, leaving the postage unpaid. No stamp is required on Certified Copies supplied to the Registrar General, and in no case should such Certified Copies be made out on the Standard Forms of Marriage Certificate for issue to the Public.
