GENERAL REGISTER OFFICE, SOMERSET HOUSE, LONDON, W.C. 2.

20th November 1917

18244. R. '17.

Reverend Sir,

I am directed by the Registrar General to acknowledge the receipt of an Occasional Copy of the corrected Entry of Mrs. Pidgeon's Marriage and to point out that the correction should have been made in the presence of the parties married by marginal note as shown in the accompanying Memorandum.

I am further to say that according to evidence produced to the Registrar General the woman's name and the ages of both parties should also have been corrected and I am therefore to request that you will if possible now arrange to carry out the correction in the presence of the parties

The Reverend R. Morris,
