E. CECIL HARRIS, SOLICITOR, CLERK TO THE GUARDIANS AND SUPERINTENDENT REGISTRAR. FORTNIGHTLY MEETING WEDNESDAY, 10.30 A.M. TELEPHONE No. 52

76, HIGH STREET. SITTINGBOURNE.

11th October 1917

Dear Mr. Tamplin,

You have sent me a conundrum which I have not had to solve previously.

I have referred to my copy of the Register and find that No. 427 relates to a marriage between Cornford and Eldridge and the officiating Minister was E. N. Tuke. My Copy, therefore, appears to be complete, and it would ~~appear, therefore~~ seem, that owing to the omission you cannot furnish a complete certificate, and the only persons who can are the Registrar General and myself.

If you agree with this view I should advise you to make a pencil note in the margin of the Register that my copy is complete, and that applicants for certified copies should be referred to me.

Yours faithfully,

E Cecil Harris
